Seeking the Blessing of the Living God

Preparing Our Hearts in Silence for Worship

"Take My Life & Let It Be" arr. Henri A. Cesar Malan

Isaiah 57:15

For thus says the One who is high and lifted up, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is of a contrite and lowly spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly, and revive the heart of the contrite."

Receiving the Call to Worship the Living God

"This is the Day"

Hymn: #389, stanzas 1,4 & 5

Father in heaven, we thank you for the revelation of your Son and the salvation we have because of his life, death and resurrection. We come confessing our sins and sinfulness to you. We are in need of repentance and forgiveness. We confess being led more by our culture than by your Word; more by custom than by your ways, more by our desire for approval than the love of the truth. Cleanse us and give us eyes to see our sins. Enlarge our hearts to desire your ways so that we may bring glory to your Name, and be blessed by your presence. Amen

Confessing the Assurance of the Forgiveness of Sin

Isaiah 53:11

By his knowledge shall the righteous One, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Confessing Our Faith Together

John 15:12-17

Minister: Beloved, what is the commandment the Lord gave His disciples on the night he was betrayed?

This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

Greater love has no one than this, that someone lays down his life for his friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command you.

No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing;

but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

Receiving the Tithes and Offerings of God's People

Malachi 3:8,10-11

Will man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, "How have we robbed you?" In your tithes and contributions. Bring the full tithes...And thereby put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need.
